OFFICIALS STUDY CORRESPONDENCE REGARDING CONTROVERSIAL SHAWSHOEN BRIDGE PROBLEM

PTA DEFENDS ATTITUDE ON RENTAL PROTEST

In a letter to another alleged local newspaper, the Wilmington PTA protested the coverage given in a news story to the interpretation of its letter of protest regarding school hall rental. The news item apparently missed the point that the PTA did not protest the use of the hall, but it was the NO-CHARGE BASIS, that was being questioned by the PTA.

The letter continued, "It is the contention of the PTA Board that when a school facility is let to an individual to further his own pursuits, however worthy, that individual and not the taxpayer should foot the bill. To set a precedent allowing the use of the school buildings free to all of the private teachers of the many fields that are today considered "art" is to place unnecessary burden on the school budget which consumer (and properly so) so large a portion of our tax dollar."

The letter said that many organizations in town depend on hall rentals and ask whether it is fair to deprive the organizations of this income.

The PTA protested also the comparison to the dancing classes sponsored by the PTA. "We do not feel" the letter stated, "that your comparison of the dancing classes offered to all school children from grades 5 to 10 by the PTA, a non-profit organization, and the use of the schools by private teachers is too apt."

To be concrete, the charge to the pupil for over an hour of PTA sponsored instruction is 4 cents, while the usual rate for private music lessons is $2 for a half hour.

Admittedly, the teacher of our classes, a highly qualified professional, is well paid, for the PTA is certainly in favor of adequate salaries for teachers.

NEW ENGLAND GAS TO TRIAL TOMORROW

The many-time delayed court case involving the New England Gas Company and officials of the Town of Wilmington comes to trial today.

Acting Town Manager Alfred Calabrese, Town Clerk Esther Russell, Board of Health Agent Patrick Thibault and Building Inspector Milton Anderson were notified yesterday to appear this morning. Chairman of the Board of Appeals Walter Hale, against whom the suit is filed, will also be called upon to appear.

Assistant District Attorney Simon Cutter, who is also Town Moderator, will present the case for the New England Gas Co. Town Counsel Phillip Buzzell will defend the Town in the suit which seeks to overthrow the decision of the Board of Appeals which ruled against the Gas Company.

The New England Gas Co. owns land on Main St. on which it sought to build a plant for the manufacture of acetylene and other gases. In the interval between the time the company (which was invited here by a former Town Manager) bought the land and the time the company sought a building permit four years later, a new set of zoning laws was voted in which prohibited the building of a plant according to the Board of Appeal decision.

GOVERNOR FURCOLO TO BE GUEST OF WILMINGTON CITIZENS

It has been definitely confirmed by the Governor of our Commonwealth that he will attend a testimonial banquet in his honor, which will be sponsored by Town Democratic Committee in June.

This Banquet will be held at Tonnello's on Route 38, Wednesday, June 4. Tickets are limited and are expected to be sold out very early next month.

Chairman of the Town Democratic Committee James McLaughlin has stated that among the notables in the Political Circles that will be attending are: District Attorney James O'Dea, Sheriff Howard Fitzpatrick, County Commissioners Brennan and Buckley, State Representative Tom Donahue and many others.

John Tonnello is going all out in the planning of the dinner and those attending are assured of the finest meal available.

Tickets will be available by calling the following numbers: OL 8-2049, 8-8393, 8-3110, 8-4940. Tickets can be picked up at Jim's Variety on Shawshoan Avenue.

SELECTMEN TACKLE MANY PROBLEMS

Robert Evans of Ballardvale St., met with the Selectmen Monday evening to discuss re-opening his gravel pit. Mr. Evans informed the board that he has been contacted by a representative of the construction firm which is building the Avco plant, relative to obtaining gravel for the parking lot. Mr. Evans was advised to file an application and bond with the Town Engineer and consult with the Selectmen next week.

The Eames St. drainage problem was discussed. Work will begin as soon as the land is dry enough. Brentwood Ave.'s drainage ditch, which is considered a safety hazard, will be investigated by the Selectmen personally this weekend.

The curve on West St. near the water easement will be repaired. Chairman Frank Hagerty asked Acting TM Calabrese to check on the sale on the old dump on Salem St., which has been found open. He also asked that the blinking lights the town purchased for the Little League Park be put in good order and used at the park. Mr. Hagerty suggested that a check be made with the DPW to see what action has been taken regarding a Town request for marking on the ledge at the curve near Warners on Main St., and also the extension of the solid white line in the same vicinity.

Mr. Calabrese reported that the Reading light is prepared to move the poles at the corner of Woburn and Wildwood Sts. and that work should begin as soon as the weather allows on cutting back the corner.

On suggestion of Town Counsel Phillip Buzzell, a court case involving injuries claimed by a resident on a faulty sidewalk will be settled out of court.

The meeting went into executive session at 10 pm.

Selectmen Ask Action On Salvage Storage

The Board of Selectmen at its regular meeting Monday evening agreed to bear down on a local man who operates a rubbish collection business and who, the Selectmen claim, is storing combustible materials on his property.

The building which is used to store rags, papers, etc., is close to another dwelling, according to the Selectmen.

The Selectmen instructed the Town Manager to instruct the Fire Chief and the Board of Health to look into the situation.

Sewer Bill Passes House

Word was received from Rep. Thomas Donahue that House Bill 2901 was passed Tuesday afternoon. The bill, filed by former Town Manager Joseph Courtney, authorized the Town of Wilmington to construct and operate a sewerage system. Preliminary work has already started on the system on Woburn St. The Avco corporation, who is paying for the initial cost of the project, will be the only firm using the line when it is connected.

WILMINGTON HEBREW COMMUNITY CENTER TO CONDUCT WHIST
On Thursday evening, April 17, at 8 the Wilmington Hebrew Community Center will hold a gift whist. The whist party will be held at the Community Center Building on Salem St., opposite MacDonald Rd., North Wilmington.

Many fine prizes have been assembled for the winners of the evening. In addition to these prizes, a door prize will be awarded.

Hostesses for the evening will be: Ida Ford, Silva Jacobs, Ruth Naudel, Shirley Silverman, Charlotte Sobelman and Dorothy Vincour.

The committee is making plans which insures a good time for all who attend. Refreshments will be served and everyone will be welcome.

SELECTMEN SEEK TO CUT HUGE PHONE BILLS

A bill for $87 for one phone in Town Hall brought to a head an accumulation of complaints about the high cost of phoning by Town employees at the Selectmen's meeting Monday evening.

The matter was brought up by Selectman Nicholas DeFelice who wondered whether there was a practical method of limiting phone calls from Town maintained telephones to necessary and brief conversations. Acting Town Manager Alfred Calabrese said the matter was more one of control and that there was no feasible method of checking calls without a switchboard. Chairman of the Board Frank Hagerty said the cost of a switchboard could be prohibitive.

TM Calabrese finally came up with the suggestion that all toll calls in Town Hall be placed through one phone, and a notation of the call be made and filed with his office. Other town offices will be asked to check the number and length of toll calls where practical.

Little League Tryouts

Tryouts for the Little League of Wilmington will be held this week, Saturday and Sunday afternoon, April 12 and 13 at 1 pm at the Common.

Boys of the ages of 9 and 10 will tryout on Saturday at 1 pm. Boys of 11 and 12 will tryout on Sunday at 1 pm. Boys who played on the Major teams last year and will be eligible this year do not have to come out to tryouts.

It is requested that they do not come down to tryouts to give the other boys trying out for the Majors a fair chance.

Each boy trying out will be given a number to pin on his shirt or sweater. At the end of the tryouts the boys will be told when to report again.

There is an urgent need for men to help in getting the Little League field in shape for opening day.

If you have a few spare hours Saturday or Sunday morning we would be grateful. If interested, report to the field or call Al Kasabowski, OL 8-8150 or Bob Hastings, OL 8-3457.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By HANK FILIPPONE

And how much water do you have in your cellar? I've waited all winter for the tide to go out in mine and just when I thought it was drying up, the rains came again.

Our Selectmen have been very busy these Saturdays, interviewing applicants for the office of Town Manager.

The Lions Ball will be held Friday at the Andover Country Club. All you people who have attended these balls in the past are familiar with the good times you generally have, so I'll be seeing you there.

Did you know that Dr. Henry L. Posters, Charles River Breeding Laboratories produce about 8,500 white rats each week for medical and scientific research? Some one from Chicago sent me the front page of the Chicago Daily News, March 28 edition on which this news item appeared. The name of the Town of Wilmington sure does get around.

The name on the door of a maternity ward in a Boston Hospital reads: "Hearport."

There will be television sets in classrooms next year. These sets will be used in conjunction with the educational television programs now being offered to schools through WGBH-TV, Channel 12.

This program will afford a world of Scientific and Cultural knowledge to our students and the system of learning through pictures has certainly proved efficient. If you have any doubts, ask your children.

The first aid classes that are being conducted by Civil Defense are open to the public. Volunteers are requested in the Radiological Department for instructions in uses of Geiger counters, Survey meters, and Dosimeters. All persons de-

Defense is asked to Call Rene Lari-vee, Director, at OL 8-8071 or Hank Sullivan at 8-4384.

The new voting lists are out and are in book form, tabloid size. This method makes references quite easy and all in all, a very neat package.

The Town Hall telephone bill was the subject of much concern at the last Board of Selectmen meeting.

It seems that for some months the bill has been quite high and our town fathers are becoming disturbed. A possible easement on the problem was offered by Temporary Town Manager Fred Calabrese when he suggested that all outgoing calls go through one number, idea being that this system may tend to discourage a certain number of calls.

Li. George Cushing will attend a school for rescue work.

From the looks of some of our streets now that the snow is gone, it is evident that our street department is going to be quite busy for some little while.

Monday, a letter was sent to Mr. S. G. Phillips, Vice President, Engineering, of the Boston and Maine Railroad in regards the Shawheen Avenue Bridge. The text of this letter will be found elsewhere in this paper, but its evident that the town fathers take a very dim view of the actions of the B & M.

Jim McLaughlin, our busy Chairman, will be attending a reception given by Senator Kennedy at Pat-ten's Restaurant in Boston, Saturday, April 19, as guest of the Senator himself.

Harold McKelvey will be the official greeter at the testimonial banquet for the Governor at Ton-nello's, Wednesday, June 4. Hal, who has been a prominent Democrat for many years, is sure to provide an interesting evening, serving in that capacity.

Incidentally, Harold has announced his candidacy for the nomination for Clerk of Courts in the Middlesex District.

Joe Ward of Fitchburg, candidate for the nomination for Attorney General, was a speaker at our last meeting at the home of Mrs. Kelley. Joe has definitely confirmed his appearance at the Banquet at Ton-nello's.

Popular Red Eaton and Teddy Cantrell are working on the Reception Committee, along with our live wire, Mary Cunningham.

The Committee was very happy to welcome to the fold Edward Cur-tias and Bill Rogers. I've heard Ed speak many times at the Town Meeting floor and he has always made an impression on me. I personally look forward to working with him on Committee matters.

That photographer at the State House did a capitol job when he snapped Selectman Frank Hagerty, Chairman Jim McLaughlin and State Representative Tom Donohue at a conference with the Governor on the Shawheen Avenue Bridge. Jim looks enough like the Governor to be his brother, and of course Frank always looks polished.

An application for permission to use Town Park for a clambake on Sunday, August 24, and an alternate date for Sunday, August 31, was given to the Board of Selectmen last Monday night. The application was approved, subject to approval by the Town Engineer, George May-nard. This affair promises to be the greatest and will provide Lob-ster or Chicken, Clams, Crabs, Corn on the Cob, Watermelon, Frankfurters and Beans, Tonic, Coffee and other refreshments. This affair will be open to the public and all residents are advised to keep these dates in mind. There will be children's contests, Softball games, Beauty Contest, Rolling pin throw-ing contest, mood music all day long. All in all, this promises to give you folks an ideal old fashioned pic-nic day with the family. For you people who have never been down to the town park, I can assure you that Wilmington boasts of the finest town park that I know of. The grounds are very well kept, and the general area is excellently wooded. Family picnics have been part of our lives since all times and you and your family can be assured of a day well spent.

The long silent Town Democratic Committee is becoming very active these days, under the capable lead-ership of Jim McLaughlin. This year a series of events are to run, the first of which was a whist party and drawing held last Saturday at the Silver Lake-Betterment Hall. Under the direction of Mrs. Eliza-beth and Ernie Crispo, the whist party played host to a capacity crowd and was a financial success. State Representative Tom Dono-hue was among those present and awarded the winner of the drawing his prize.

Total population of the town of Wilmington as of January 11, 1958 has been announced as 11,324. Of this total there are 4,629 registered voters, and figures show that 861 are Republicans and 630 Democrats.

Eight women have taken the ex-ams for policemen duties and Town Manager Calabrese is at present setting up the dates for inter-views with them. It is expected that appointments for the positions will be made in the next two weeks.

It was announced that the Rotary Ladies night would be held April 30, at the Colonial Country Club.

Ed Osberg introduced the speaker of the day, M. Pal, who is studying at Harvard College as a Rotary foundation student. The speaker gave the club many interesting aspects of his country, and emphasized the many reasons that his country is misunderstood. He blamed the press for a good deal of this misunderstanding. His talk was well presented, and enjoyed a great deal by the club members.

THE LIONS ROAR

The Annual Spring Ball is going to be quite an affair according to all the reports and talk that is going around. The committee in charge states that all tickets are in circulation and the arrangements are all completed. Jack Hennessy and his orchestra will provide music for your dancing and a buffet type lunch will be served. The Andover Country Club is the scene set for the affair. So, what say, let's see you all at the Ball on Friday, the 11th of April. You can be assured of a good time.

The safety campaign is getting into high gear and Jim Doherty has stated that the circulars are in the process of printing and that a date of April 27 has been tentatively set for the adult end of the campaign. On this day the members of the local Lions Club will cooperate with the local law enforcement officers at various check points throughout the town and try to install on the motorist the need for caution in order to make the area safer for all concerned. This is a statewide campaign and other Lions Clubs will be out in their own Locals.

King Lion Cushing states that the visiting Lions contest is in full swing, and also that on the 30th of April, Deputy District Governor Carl Doosler of Woburn will make his annual visitation and the King Lion would like to have a full attendance of the membership present for the occasion. Carl, as you know, is one of the local boys who is aspiring to run for the District Governorship come the August Convention at Swampscott. The best wishes of the entire club are with you on this endeavor Carl.

See you next week.

A lively meeting preceded Mr. Ravech's address. John McNeff, of Stoneham, Chairman of the Projects Committee, stated that the plans for setting up a Pre-school Clinic and an Adolescent Study Group in Woburn, were being stepped up, and these classes should be in operation in the near future.

Plans to form a Boy Scout Troop for retarded children were also discussed, and Thomas Basti, of Burlington, hopes to interest all Boy Scout Leaders in the District, in this project.

Hope was expressed that a Sheltered Workshop for the children of working age could be established in the not-to-distant future, and Harold Trekell, of Wakefield, and President of EMARC, Inc., informed the members that a special meeting of the Executive Board will be held to discuss this project. Maurice Mezoff, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Association for Retarded, Mr. Trekell said.

Richard Ford, of Melrose, introduced the guest speaker, and none could deny that the highlight of the evening was the address by Mr. Ravech. He touched briefly upon the progress that has been made by the various groups throughout the state, and, indeed,

As My Garden Sleeps By Mari Gold

This spring the weather certainly is frustrating. The tail end of old winter sure is hanging on, holding up gardening activities. Until the weather does break, don't be in a great hurry to begin. Sometimes the transition from winter to spring seems to take place overnight, so it would be wise to have all tools and sprays in readiness.

Have you studied the seed catalogs so as to plant the best varieties most suited to your soil? Don't dig in the mud, the soil should be dry enough so clods crumble before you begin to dig or cultivate. Fertilize the lawn if you have not done so. Spraying for various things now will save a lot of energy later for Arbovit. Begin dusting with mossy dust using a dust perm. Be sure to get the underside of the branches and repeat the process in thirty days. Keep a daily watch upon your plants, shrubs and trees. See that they do not become infested. Disease is easy to prevent, but very difficult to cure.

Most every year there are new insecticides and fungicides which control chewing and sucking insects and fungus diseases. It is hard to keep up with all these new things. Hardware and seed stores all carry one kind or another. Just tell the salesman what you need and he will know what to recommend. Then after you have made your purchase, simply follow the directions included. The same goes for fertilizer. There are some I like better than others. Some are more trouble to use due to burning. Some kinds you can wash right away with the hose. Others you cultivate in.

So the one to use is the one you can handle the best. There is a fertilizer for evergreens and acid loving plants. This of course is different from others. It contains a formula for the healthy growth of these plants such as Azaleas, Magnolias, Rhododendrons, Laurens, Blueberries, Dogwood and fir trees such as Hemlock.

This dark cloud weather has been hard on the greenhouse grower who was trying to get flowers to bloom in time for Easter. Some of the growers are using lights at night to bring the plants into bloom. Many folks believe plants grown under glass will grow and bloom as long as there is plenty of heat. This is not quite so. Nothing will bloom without a good supply of what "Old Man Sun" has to offer. Everyone enjoys the Easter Lily.

by. Maybe you have noticed a drop of water on the end of the petals. The legend has it that the pure white Lilly we know as the Easter Lilly grew outside the tomb where Christ was buried and the Lilly cried with sorrow at the death of the Savior. When he arose from the dead, the Lilly cried again from joy, thus on the very end of each petal you may find a drop of water representing a tear.

For those who enjoy Lillies, there is a new hardy Easter Lilly. These are just like the florist Easter Lillies, but unlike them in that they may be grown outdoors and will bloom in August. Plant them now or until early May. They will assume a height of two and one half to three feet. Plant them six to eight inches deep. The name of this Lilly is Lillium Crissey or Estate.

Perhaps you received an Easter tip as a gift so here a few tips on caring for it. Hydrangeas like a cool temperature and plenty of water. Azaleas also need a cool spot with plenty of light and water. Potted Roses (Floribundas) may be planted in the open ground as soon as the weather breaks and may be treated like any other rose.

Tulips may be cut back when they have finished blooming and may be planted in the garden. This, however, is not always successful as the life has been forced out of the bulbs. This also applies to the Easter Lilly. The bulbs may grow, but are usually weak and only produce foliage.

I think I can...

I think I can...

He'll make it, too—even though his arms feel as if they were going to pull right out of their sockets.

He'll make it all the way through life. He'll do it on faith... and the strength faith brings with it.

What he did today he did because of a dare. Ten or twenty years from now his challenges will be more serious. But he'll still be able to face them with confidence.

He'll be able to count on another kind of faith then—deep spiritual faith... and the strength and guidance that only strong religious and family backgrounds can give.

The time to start building that faith is now.

Find the strength for your life... worship together this week

Lowell St. Accident

At 1:15 a.m. on March 29, Fred LaFave of 46 Parker St., Tewksbury was driving on Lowell St., towards Wilmington Center, when he lost control and struck the traffic island at the junction of Lowell and Main Sts.

Fire and policemen sped to the scene, but Mr. LaFave escaped without injury. His vehicle, however, had to be towed from the scene. Officer Ritchie is investigating the accident.

As told, oil companies have paid state and federal governments well over half a billion dollars for offshore oil leases that, lumped together, would make a square only 20 miles long and 80 miles wide!

PTA News Bulletin

Easter finery and youthful endeavor will headline the program at the next P. T. A. meeting on Tuesday, April 15, 8 p.m., in the Herbert Barrows Auditorium. Under the direction of Mrs. Evans Gourley and her son David, the ballroom classes, grades 5-10 will present a dancing demonstration. The boys and girls will give a review of dancing class procedure from introductory to advanced. Fifth and Sixth grade pupils from the Swain and Wildwood Schools have attended classes every Thursday afternoon from 3 to 4 in the Wildwood School. The lessons have been presented in two ten week terms, with a party marking the end of each term. Both first and second term pupils will take part in the demonstration.

Awards will be given to the pupils having attended twenty weeks with perfect attendance. Junior high classes have been held on Wednesday evening from 7 to 8:30 at the high school cafeteria. Five years ago a committee of Wilmington P. T. A. members visited a fifth and sixth grade dancing class taught by Mrs. Gourley at the Pearl Street School in Reading. This has enthusiastically instigated the first classes in Wilmington which have been continued each year.

The Gourley family has had considerable experience in working with young people having supervised and directed the free teen-age dances at the Starlight Ballroom in Lynnfield from 1948 to 1955 where more than 1500 boys and girls received instructions each Tuesday evening during the summer months.

In addition to the Wilmington classes, Mrs. Gourley and David teach P. T. A. sponsored classes in Reading and Wakefield.

David Gourley graduated from Wakefield in 1956 and has been associated with the dancing classes since his sixth year in grammar school. In addition to dancing, he has achieved considerable success as a photographer, winning the national photographic award during his senior high year. He attended Boston University and will enroll in classes this summer at the professional photographer college at Winona, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gourley's elder son, Gary, now stationed overseas with the Air Corps was selected to do the choreography for several U. S. O. shows. He has been auditioned at the Palladium in London and has taught ballroom dancing at officer's clubs in Germany.
